DEDICATION

Without Mr. Carini's constant badgering (Just kidding here . . .) and subtle suggestions for improvement, we might never have completed the yearbook. He has put in many extra hours in order to make this year's production of a quality yearbook a success. When at times we had serious concerns about meeting our various deadlines, he took the time to sit down and encourage us to continue with the work that we were struggling to finish. By helping us to keep this project in perspective, he inspired us to go beyond our original expectations.

On behalf of the yearbook staff we thank you for your efforts and commitment to this undertaking- The 1990 Talisman.

We're Done!!!!

Class Officers Of 1990

VICE PRESIDENT: Lara Birt, TREASURER: Conrad Looney, SECRETARY: Marcy McGurl.

President's Message

Class of 1990:

As we journeyed through our years at Rutland we saw it in many ways - at times a prison and a pit; at other times as a comfortable familiar home where we experienced friendship, hope and knowledge. I would like to think that we will remember it in both ways, and in its memory retain the feelings of our youth.

In our departure from what may soon seem paradise, I wish you all success, profit, and above all happiness . . . but not luck. Luck is for rabbits.

-Zack Kron

ENCORE THEATRE presents ...

... the unusual and talented ...

Ta-Da!!

theater

Successfully organizing quality high school dramatic productions like this year's The King and I & Poe, Poe, Poe is not an easy task. The people behind-the-scenes very often do not receive the recognition they deserve, and I believe it is time we paid proper tribute to someone who makes all the difference. This person possesses a wealth of much-needed patience, imagination, persistence, and most of all, a sense of humor in some tight places! She is Cathy Archer, our respected and overworked director. By encouraging us to strive for the best within ourselves (actually, threatening us with dire consequences otherwise), she has provided the incredible support that has enabled every member of numerous casts and crews to reach their potential ... and beyond. Cathy, we extend our greatest thanks to you; and on behalf of the senior members of Encore Theatre, we'll miss you!!!

A Game We Won't Soon
Forget.

Memories are the best thing to have.
 When you look back and cherish special moments you've had.
 Memories are when there was always that special someone near.
 That special someone who knew your hopes, dreams, and fears.
 At one point; we have to let go;
 and it may hurt really bad.
 During that time, it'll feel like the end of the world.
 But, just look back on all those memories you have.
 -Anne Marie Gorruso

When you're down and troubled, and you need a helping hand, and nothin'
 no, nothing is goin' right . . .

Close your eyes and think of me,
 and soon I will be there,
 to brighten up
 even your darkest night.

You just call out my name,
 and you know wherever I am,
 I'll come runnin' to see you again.
 Winter, spring, summer or fall-
 All you've got to do is call,
 and I'll be there . . .
 You've got a friend.
 -James Taylor

"You look up at the sky and you cry for a star . . . one night you look down-and there it is-shining in your hand!"
 N. Richard Nash
 "The Rainmaker"

Stars Wheel in Purple

Stars wheel in purple,
 yours is not so rare . . .

As Hesperus, nor yet so great a star
 as bright Aldebaran or Sirius, Nor yet the stained and brilliant one of war;

Stars turn in purple,
 glorious to the sight;
 Yours is not gracious as the Pleiades are Nor as Orion's sapphires, luminous;

Yet disenchanted, cold,
 imperious face,
 When all the others blighted,
 reel and fall,
 Your star, steel-set,
 keeps lone and frigid trust
 to freighted ships, baffled in wind and blast.
 Hilda Doolittle

None of us like that word
 good-bye.
 Sometimes that word
 can make us cry.
 We've got to be tough
 and we've got to be strong.
 If we can pull thru that,
 nothing should go wrong.
 It's just the thought of watching you leave my eyes;
 for once in my life,
 you won't hear my cries.
 But I'll keep my chin up and wait to hear from you again.
 Because who ever defined
 the word good-bye;
 to be the very end?
 -A.M.G.

Rekindling memories of the past . . . they seem so long ago.
 Memories are in the making, even if your soul doesn't know . . .
 -Kasey Wood

"Yesterday's dreams are tomorrow's sighs . . ."
 -The Moody Blues

Eye looking inside from the out, Never appearing to want in.
 Eccentric is what you appear to be;
 it's what you are.
 Can't anyone see you like I do?
 Your essence, your strength,
 Your love that you bear so much to everyone . . .
 Yet now,
 others' eyes are opening,
 whose lids were shut so tight.
 "Do not fight against the people you love,
 " . . . and do not show your enemies how much you hate."
 You forbid yourself to do so,
 for I do not think you hate anyone,
 but only the oppressed side of yourself . . .
 Now my friend, things have changed;
 Your time has come . . .
 You are the outside force that people are noticing, feeling . . .
 at least I am . . .
 to those who dislike change
 and fear the overwhelming,
 You do not need their negative auras,
 nor do you possess them.
 At such a time of close ends
 and new beginnings,
 You know you still have us-
 Inside the circle of bizarre tactics, my friend-
 You still have me . . .
 -Kasey Wood

Let your mind start a journey to a strange new world, Leave all thoughts of the world you knew before; Let your soul take you where you long to be . . .
 -Charles Hart

It is a rare occurrence when one student is so talented that his/her accomplishments are recognized way beyond the sphere of a particular school or area. The Class of 1990 has such an individual in Jason Gresl.

Jason was chosen from over 2,000 clarinetists in the country to participate in the McDonald's All-American Band. He was one of two representatives from Vermont. Jason traveled to Washington, D.C. to perform on National T.V. in the "World's Largest Concert" and then on to New York City for the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. He was also chosen as an alternate for the National Honors Orchestra.

Throughout high school, Jason has participated in everything musical this school offers. As an extension of these programs he has had the opportunity to participate in All-District, All-State and All-New England Music Festivals... but, this year was special--for Jason scored the highest rating of all clarinet players at the All-New England Solo and Ensemble Festival Competition placing him Principal Clarinetist in the All-New England Orchestra.

And as if this wasn't enough, Jason was our representative to the Governor's Institute on the Arts. For his final project Jason produced, managed and starred in his own recital/art show... "An Artistic Afternoon."

Every Saturday morning for the last two years Jason has traveled to Burlington for rehearsals as a member of the Vermont Youth Orchestra. In February, Jason performed a major clarinet Concerto as featured soloist with the VYO at the Flynn Theatre in Burlington...quite a feat for someone 17 years old!

Everyone in the Class of 1990 should be proud that Jason is a member of this class and attended RHS. He has brought honor and pride to all of us!! Go for it, Jason!!!!

The Sky is Deep

*Time to set the soul free
Break loose from those bonds
That are holding you back
From the sunlight and the flames
And the darkness of the night.*

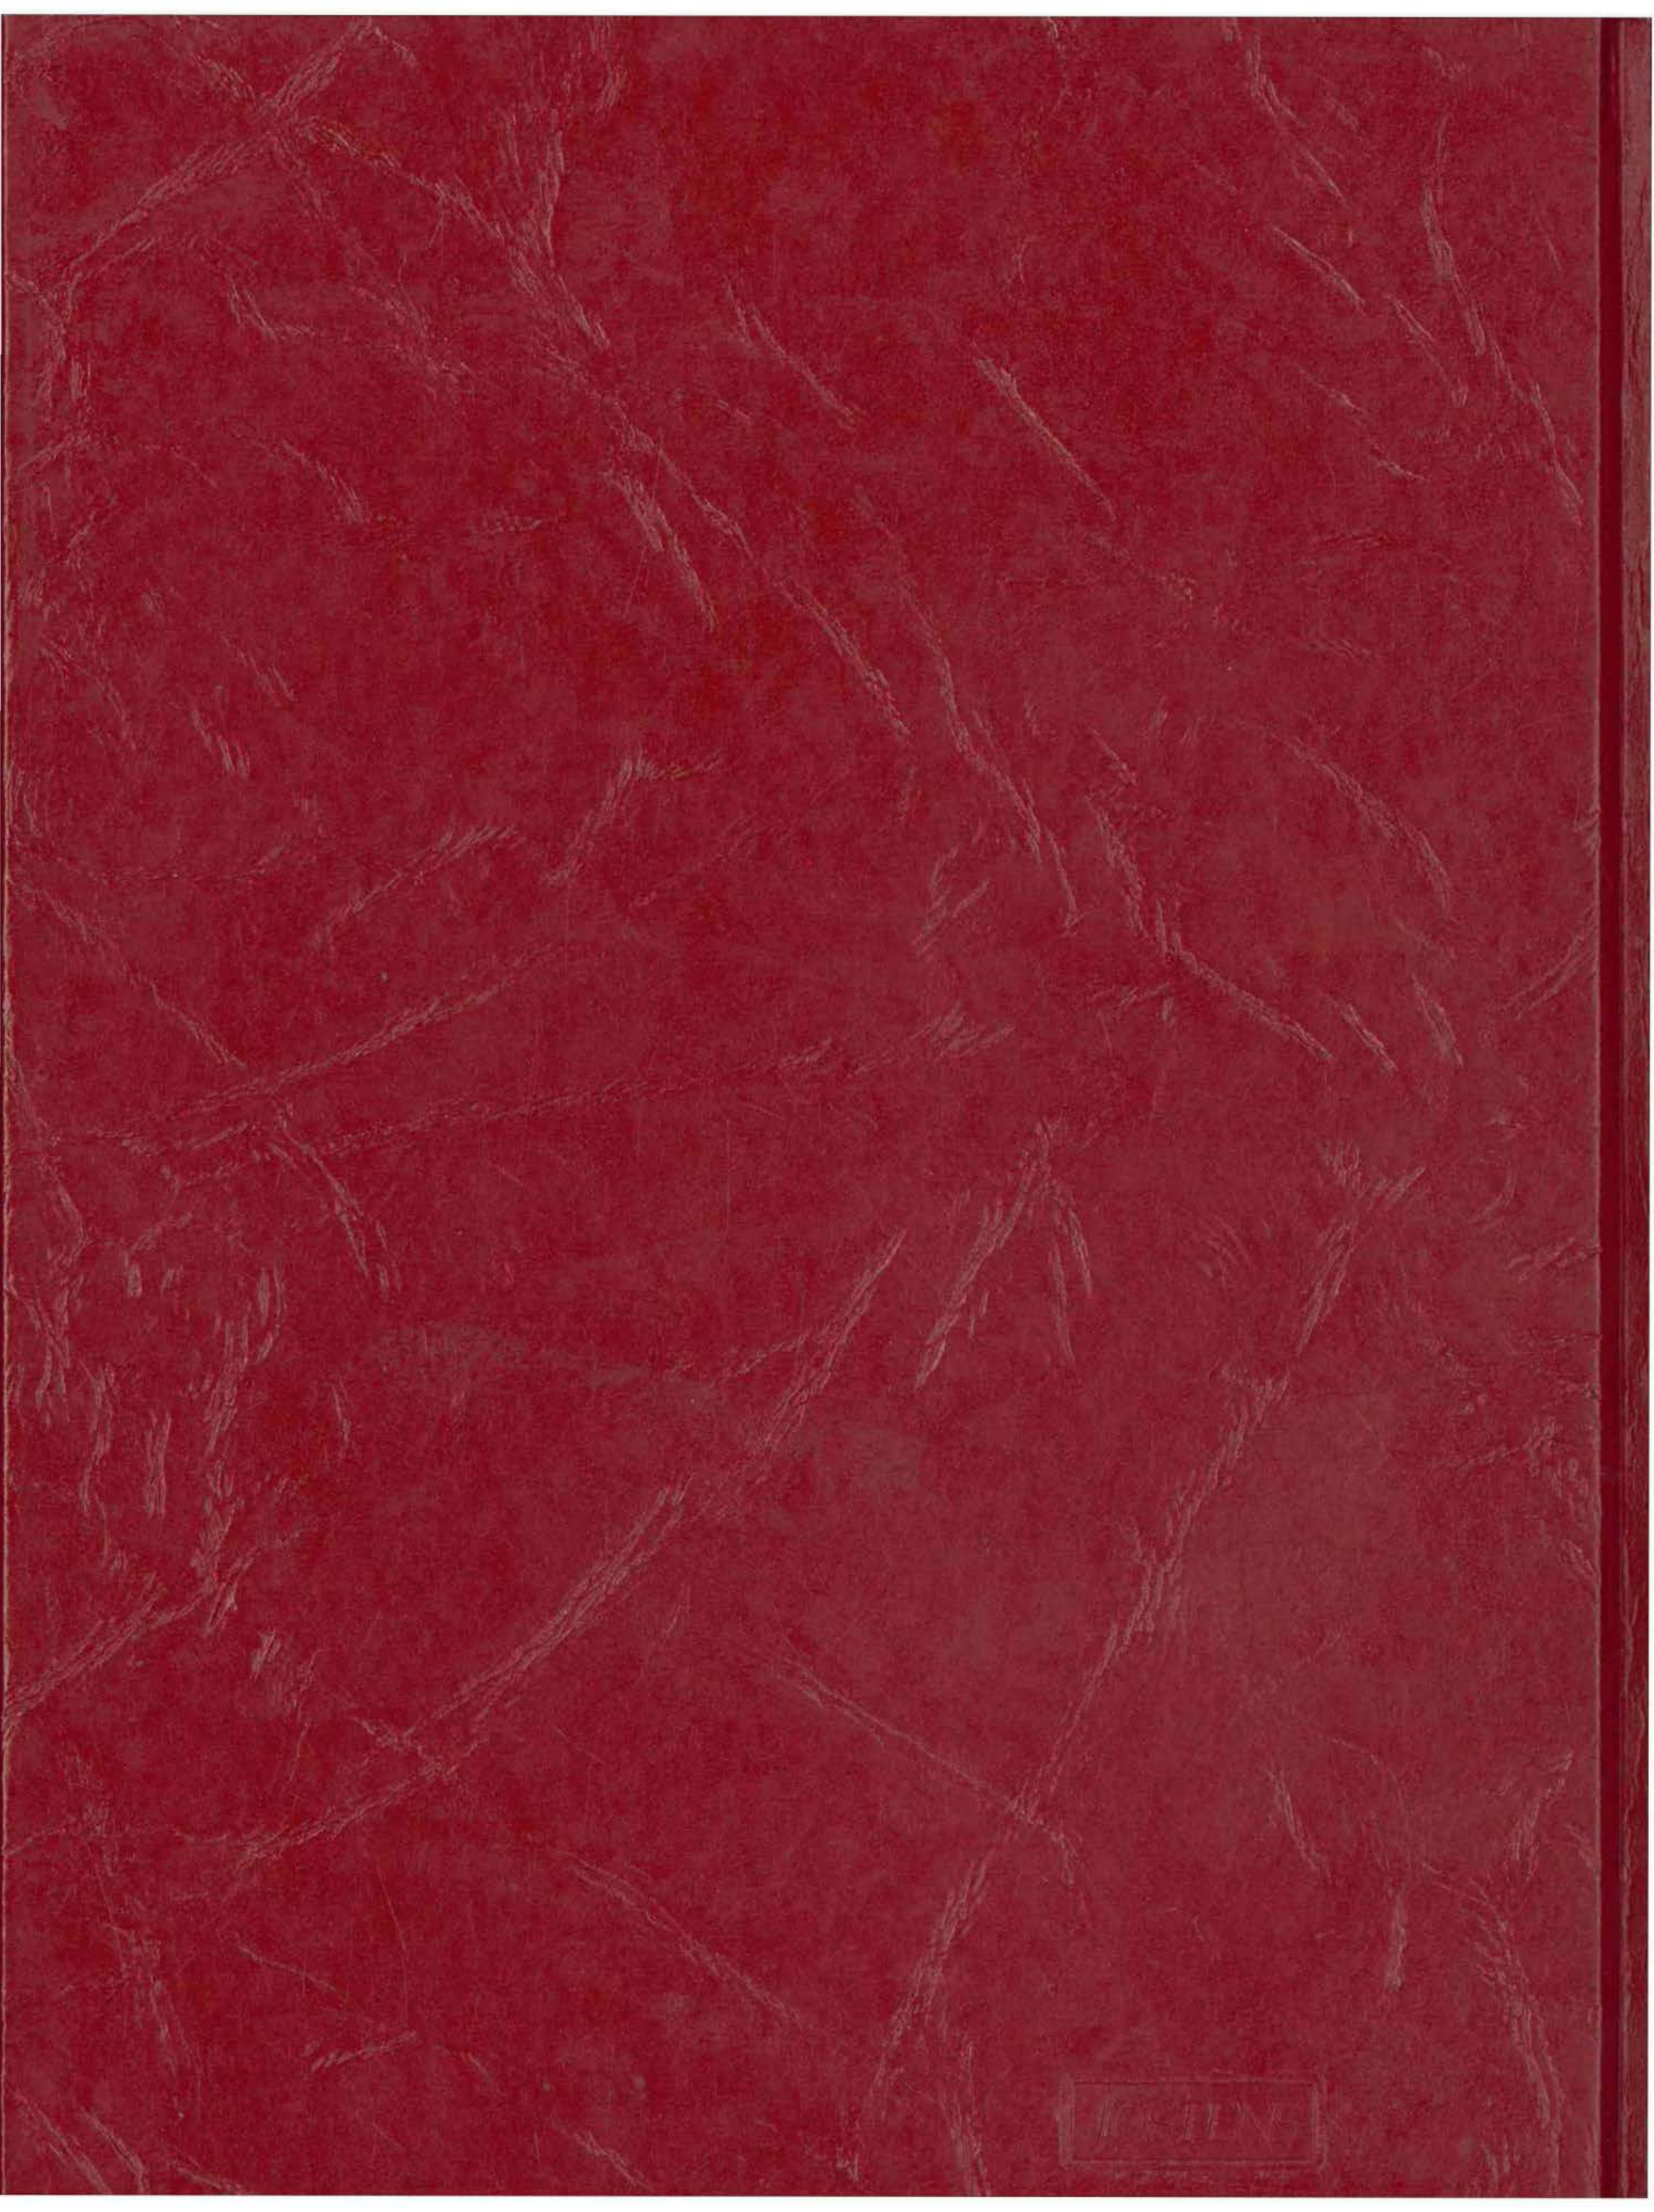

*Standing in the middle of a bridge
Feel the danger of the wind*

*Look to the ocean from rocky shores
The waters are gathering around your feet.*

*Long meadow grasses sway in animal rhythm
As you walk the hard dirt road.*

*Around the bends, over the hills
Fallen leaves become part of the shadows' dance Step by step, faster still
The pale moonfall brings another tomorrow
Time to set the soul free.*
